

tape for loan for anyone needing it. Descriptions of and samples from Nancy Morey's rainbow dyeing workshop were available. While the talk moved from fibers to house repairs and back to fibers, hands were busy spinning wool, carding mohair, stretching a silk cap, and knitting a garment. It was a lovely, relaxed end-of-the-summer meeting of free-flowing form.

LOCAL FIBER SOURCES DIRECTORY

If you are a local source of fibers for spinners or know of one, please send pertinent information to the editor for an updated directory. I found an old directory in the Guild files from 1980. More recent information should be beneficial to us all. Deadline: December 1, 1986

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

It started with a single, gentle burst of enthusiasm and a simple question--why not?--in response to a plea for a new editor to relieve Daisy of commitments of pen and paper outside of her new course studies at the University. I'm pleased to try to fill this niche in the Guild.

Please send me your thoughts on spinning--personal, anecdotal, and factual--and pass along your knowledge and experiences to the rest of the Guild members.

October 1986

Are your lambs depressed?

Do your ewes give you the evil eye as Fall approaches and the butchering knives are sharpened?

Well, turn your sheep onto the theory of reincarnation. Just five sessions with the Swami and they'll be talking of karma and the here-to-come, baa-ing Hare Krishna-Hari Krishna. Lessen the tension of your flock and get a better tasting meat to boot, with Swami's never-fail Placate-a-Sheep.
